Description

Who ya gonna call?

Ghostbusters, 1984 is a American comedy film directed and produced by Ivan Reitman.

The film stars Bill Murray, Dan Aykroyd and Harold Ramis as three eccentric parapsychologists who start a ghost-catching business in New York City, and Ernie Hudson as the Ghostbusters' first recruit.

Now the four Ghostbusters are rebooted here to save the collectible world.

Blitzway is very proud to officially present the legend figures of Ghostbusters in 1/6th scale from the movie of original Ghostbusters.

It features a highly detailed likeness head sculpt, accurate tailored costumes, brand new fully articulated body, various realistic accessories, and perfect realizations of Bill Murray as Peter Venkman, Dan Aykroyd as Raymond Stantz, Harold Ramis as Egon Spengler and Ernie Hudson as Winston Zeddemore.

We have been preparing for so long with Best Artists to craft the real masterpiece figures that best express a propensity, a character, and a meaning.

Please don't miss the opportunity to add these legend characters to your collection!
